OVERCOMING WORRY

Jesus commands His disciples not to worry (Matthew 6:25-34). What is your strategy for obeying this command?

The secular world suggests many different ways in which we may eliminate worry from our lives. Surely many of these suggestions would help us. For example, if we exercised more, we would feel less burdened and worry less; if we asked ourselves whether we could control those situations about which we worried, we worry less about them; if we stayed busy doing things in which we were interested, we would have less time to worry. All of these suggestions are helpful.

Furthermore, it should not surprise us that some of the world's suggestions about dealing with worry are rooted (if unwittingly) in Scripture. For example, we are told to be concerned primarily about today and less concerned about what may happen to us in the distant future. Jesus prescribed this very strategy (Matthew 6:34).

And yet secular society cannot recommend the primary thing that our Lord recommended as the solution to worry:

Therefore do not be anxious, saying, 'What shall we eat?' or 'What shall we drink?' or 'What shall we wear?' For the Gentiles seek after all these things, and your heavenly Father knows that you need them all. But seek first the kingdom of God and his righteousness, and all these things will be added to you (Matthew 6:31-33).
(Over)

Jesus says that a fulfilled, worry-free life is rooted in the assurance that one is serving the Lord Who provides for and takes care of His people. If we are in the Father's family, then we can be at peace in the knowledge that the Father will protect His own.

God's people have always trusted Him to take care of them, even when they had a lot of trouble in their lives. If you were to ask David how he dealt with worry, for example, his primary solution would undoubtedly be that He believed that the good Shepherd cared for him (Psalms 23). Consider the following words, from Psalms 4:

Answer me when I call, O God of my righteousness! You have given me relief when I was in distress. . . . [T]he Lord has set apart the godly for himself; the Lord hears when I call to him. . . . Offer right sacrifices, and put your trust in the Lord. . . . In peace I will both lie down and sleep; for you alone, O Lord, make me dwell in safety.

Have you taken advantage of our Lord's prescription for eliminating worry? To ask it another way, are you a faithful child of His? Caleb

FROM THE HERRINGS

Dear Macland Road Family,

Today is our last Sunday at Macland Road and we wanted to let you know how much we love and appreciate you! Belinda has been going to Macland since her college days and I have been a member since 1995! It has been a blessing and honor serving and growing in Christ with you. Our request is that you will continue to keep us in your prayers and come for a visit in Guntersville! Just give us a few weeks to settle in...

Thank you for the recent going away fellowship luncheon that you held in our honor. We are very grateful to have a church family like you guys, and your love and kindness was on display! Our upcoming move is a bitter sweet one as we are looking forward to getting back to Bama, but we will miss you guys terribly.

Stay in touch and keep spreading the Gospel in West Cobb. In Christian Love, Jim, Belinda, and Dalton

FAREWELL

Today is the last Sunday that the Herring's will be at Macland Road. We wish them well in their new home and pray that God continues to watch and keep them in His care. They will be an asset to the Lord's work in their new congregation and will be missed in ours. We welcome them back anytime they are in our area. MAY GOD BLESS AND KEEP YOU UNTIL WE MEET AGAIN.

DIRECTORY CHANGE

Bill and Shannon Rolen and Michael, Jenna, and Brooke have a new address. It is 4647 Oakleigh Manor Drive, Powder Springs, GA. 30127

CONGRATULATIONS

Our very best wishes are sent to Jon and Catie Shultz who were married on Friday, May 13th in Florida.

ATTENTION VBS TEAM LEADERS

There will be a brief meeting for VBS team leaders Sunday, May 22, immediately following AM worship in the auditorium. Thank you, Jim

ATTENTION YOUTH

Get ready to Blast Off for Summer. On Saturday, May 28th, we will meet in the Fellowship Hall at 5:30 p.m. when we will eat, have a devo and then play with Nerf guns. Boys bring chips and drinks and girls bring desserts. Hot wings and chicken tenders will be provided. There is a signup sheet in the foyer.

ATTENTION GOLDEN AGERS

It has been decided that the Golden Agers' will take a summer break. The next group activity will be October 11th. Start thinking now about fall and winter activities.
