When Barnabas and Saul went to Lystra on their first missionary journey (Acts 14:8-18), Paul healed a crippled man by the power of God. The crowds who saw this event were so amazed by the miracle that they began to cry out, "The gods have come down to us in the likeness of men!" They said that Barnabas was Zeus, king among the Greek gods, and that Paul was Hermes, messenger among the Greek gods. The local priest of Zeus prepared to lead the crowd in sacrifices to Paul and Barnabas. The speech that Paul and Barnabas gave in response to this is one of the great speeches of the Bible.

"Men, why are you doing these things? We also are men, of like nature with you, and we bring you good news, that you should turn from these vain things to a living God, who made the heaven and the earth and the sea and all that is in them. In past generations he allowed all the nations to walk in their own ways. Yet he did not leave himself without witness, for he did good by giving you rains from heaven and fruitful seasons, satisfying your hearts with food and gladness" (14:14-17).

The inspired historian Luke records that "Even with these words [Paul and Barnabas] scarcely restrained the people from offering sacrifice to them" (14:18). Notice three important points from this text:

1. There is only one God, Who is the Creator of all material reality, and all humans are equally accountable to Him. This should lead us to humility before God and our fellow man, and to concern for the souls of all. "The Lord is the everlasting God, the Creator of the ends of the earth" (Isaiah 40:28). (over)

2. In nature, God has provided ample evidence of His existence and personal care for humanity. On the day of judgment, nobody will be able to accuse God of providing too little evidence for Himself. “[H]is invisible attributes, namely, his eternal power and divine nature, have been clearly perceived, ever since the creation of the world, in the things that have been made. So they are without excuse” (Romans 1:20).
3. Idols are worthless. Although people may put great stock in those false gods they worship (e.g., graven images, sports, money, education, societal status, family), those things are not the Lord and never will satisfy (Ecclesiastes 12:13). Nor will they take us to heaven. Only the one true God can do that (2 Timothy 4:6-8). Caleb

There will be no Wednesday morning class on October 19. Class will resume on October 26.

QUESTIONS & ANSWERS

Caleb will do Questions and Answers TONIGHT. Submit your Bible-related questions to calebcolley@gmail.com or in the box in the foyer.

Our Trunk or Treat is coming up! Please join us on Saturday, October 29th at 5:00! We have such a great turnout every year! Everyone is invited to join in the fun! Come decorate your trunk and pass out candy! We don't know who has more fun, the kids or the grown-ups! If you can't attend but would like to donate candy, just leave it in the L.A.M.B.S. box in the foyer. We'll have a bouncy house, hayride, popcorn cart, and marshmallow roasting station. Our Bible verse this month is Psalm 56:3, "When I am afraid I will trust in You."

The Mystery Dinner for 6th-12th grade will also be October 29 at 5pm

It will be in the Fellowship Hall and will be going on at the same time as Trunk or Treat. If anyone would like to donate money to help with the Dinner, it would be greatly appreciated. That way we can keep it a mystery. Donations may be given to Beth Sa'idd or Blair Roberts.

VETERAN'S DAY

Our Veteran's Day luncheon will be Sunday, November 6 following the morning worship service. Please plan to stay and honor our Veterans. We'll have a potluck lunch. The L.A.M.B.S. group will meet on Saturday, November 5 at 2:00 for our Bible lesson and preparation for the Veteran's Luncheon. We will learn about soldiers and what they've done for our country and why we honor them. We'll have some fun crafts, a yummy snack, and make a treat for our Veterans and a card for soldiers currently serving our country. Our Bible verse for this month is Joshua 1:9a. See you at 2:00 on November 5.

If you are a Veteran and have not previously given your information to Ms. Elaine or Joseph Terrell, please provide the following information: where you served, when you served, what branch of armed services you served in, and what your job was. We would love to display any memorabilia you have. Ms. Elaine will hold it in her office. Ms. Elaine and Mr. Joseph put a lot of thought and effort into our Veteran's Day program. We are honored to have so many Veterans among us. You are an inspiration!

Again, this year, the teens will be putting together Chemo Care packages for cancer patients next Sunday, October 23. We are asking for donations to help us with the project.

Please put your donations in the box located outside the office. Your help is greatly appreciated!
