It is impossible to attach a value to the gospel of Christ. The apostle Paul repeatedly made this point. Notice the following passages:

- Ephesians 3:8. To me, though I am the very least of all the saints, this grace was given, to preach to the Gentiles the unsearchable riches of Christ. . . (emp. added).
- 2 Corinthians 9:15. Thanks be to God for his inexpressible gift! (emp. added).
- Ephesians 2:4-7. God, being rich in mercy, because of the great love with which he loved us, even when we were dead in our trespasses, made us alive together with Christ—by grace you have been saved—and raised us up with him and seated us with him in the heavenly places in Christ Jesus, so that in the coming ages he might show the immeasurable riches of his grace in kindness toward us in Christ Jesus (emp. added).

In what ways is the gift of Christ beyond estimation? I do not know everything that might have been in the inspired writer's mind as he wrote these passages, but consider the following:

1. We cannot estimate the love of God as expressed through Christ, although we can appreciate it. Just as a child cannot fully understand the motivations behind his parents' actions, we cannot fully understand God's motivation for blessing us with Christ. "In this is love, not that we have loved God (over)

2. but that he loved us and sent his Son to be the propitiation for our sins” (1 John 4:10). Yet, we can appreciate the value of God’s love when we recognize how unlovable and needy we were while still in sin (see Romans 5:8; Ephesians 1:7).
3. We cannot estimate the value of a human soul, although we can appreciate it. In the words of our Lord, “For what will it profit a man if he gains the whole world and forfeits his soul? Or what shall a man give in return for his soul?” (Matthew 16:26). Yet, we can appreciate the value of a soul when we think about the salvation of our own individual souls (see 1 Timothy 1:12-17).
4. We cannot estimate the magnitude of the price that was paid for precious souls, although we can appreciate it. Christ endured not just a physical torture, but also the emotional weight of the punishment for the sins of all humanity: “Although he was a son, he learned obedience through what he suffered” (Hebrews 5:8). Yet, we can appreciate the magnitude of Christ’s sacrifice when we endure suffering for Him (see 1 Peter 4:12-19).

For cards to Cheryl Wokomaty’s family, the addresses are: Emery and Mitchell, 28 Riders Ridge Dallas, GA. 30132; Mesh, 925 Canterbury Rd. NE, Apt. 1254, Atlanta, GA. 30324; Rhonda Childress (Cheryl’s sister), 29729 Bradmoor Court, Farmington Hills, MI. 48334.

UPDATE

Edith Dahlstrom’s brother-in-law, Roger, is in remission from stage 3 lung cancer. He will still be on blood thinner because he has one blood clot. He does have some black places on his back from chemo that has to be checked to make sure that it is not cancerous. The doctors said that it will be 6 months to a year before he feels better.

Nadine and Roger want to thank everyone for their prayers and cards. The Lord has blessed us and we are so thankful!

LEADERETTES INVITE ALL LADIES TO BRUNCH

On Saturday, November 5th, at 10 A.M., the leaderettes will sponsor a brunch for all ladies. They will have speeches and songs to inspire you. Your presence will encourage them. Lads to Leaders convention preparation will begin soon. The brunch will be a part of their year round activities. There is a signup sheet on the bulletin board that lists the food you are asked to bring. One dish per person will be sufficient. That is next Saturday, Ladies.

VETERAN’S DAY

Our Veteran’s Day luncheon will be Sunday, November 13 following the morning worship service. Please plan to stay and honor our Veterans. We’ll have a potluck lunch. This is a congregation wide event, and everyone should bring food and drink for their family and extra for visitors. The L.A.M.B.S. group will meet on Saturday, November 12 at 2:00 for our Bible lesson and preparation for the Veteran’s Luncheon. We will learn about soldiers and what they’ve done for our country and why we honor them. We’ll have some fun crafts, a yummy snack, and make a treat for our Veterans and a card for soldiers currently serving our country. Our Bible verse for this month is Joshua 1:9a. See you at 2:00 on November 12. Please note the date changes.

If you are a Veteran and have not previously given your information to Ms. Elaine or Joseph Terrell, please provide the following information: where you served, when you served, what branch of armed services you served in, and what your job was. We would love to display any memorabilia you have. Ms. Elaine will hold it in her office. Ms. Elaine and Mr. Joseph put a lot of thought and effort into our Veteran’s Day program. We are honored to have so many Veterans among us. You are an inspiration!

GOLDEN AGERS' ANNUAL
DINNER

The Golden Agers will begin their Thanksgiving Fun on Tuesday, November 8, at 6 P.M.. They will enjoy a catered meal and of course, good fellowship. There is a signup sheet on the bulletin board. Please signup as quickly as possible so that the order may be placed for the food and the cost determined. The meal will be paid for at the door.

CONTACT GROUP

Contact Group 3 (Coordinator, Marc Waldrop) will meet for a few minutes in the Media Room immediately following the afternoon service. Please come and be a part of this important outreach.

ATTENTION: Please bring any completed contact cards you have to the meeting.
