The woman popularly known as “Mother Theresa” died in 1997, and was canonized as a saint in the Roman Catholic Church on September 4, 2016. [NOTE: I refrain from calling her “Mother,” because of Matthew 23:9.] Anytime the issue of sainthood arises in the national news, we are likely to have opportunities to discuss Christianity with friends and neighbors. It is helpful for Christians to bear in mind the following biblical points:

- Every member of the New Testament church is a saint, or one who has been “sanctified,” forgiven, of his sins. The word saint is used repeatedly in the New Testament for ordinary Christians—every member of the church (e.g., 1 Timothy 5:10; Philemon 5, 7; Hebrews 13:24). Paul wrote, “Or do you not know that the unrighteous will not inherit the kingdom of God? . . . And such were some of you. But you were washed, you were sanctified, you were justified in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ and by the Spirit of our God” (1 Corinthians 6:9-11, emp. added). God, and no man or council of men, decides who will become a saint.
- There is nothing in the Bible remotely resembling the official Roman “beatification” and “canonization” processes.
- Saints do not intercede with God on behalf of Christians. Christ is the only Mediator between God and man (1 Timothy 2:5).
- Those who lived after the apostolic age, who have been canonized as saints in the Catholic church, were never able to perform miracles. In truth, only apostles could pass along the ability to (over) perform miracles, and so when the last person who had contact with the apostles died, there was no more miraculous ability in the church (see Acts 8:14-17; 1 Corinthians 13:8-12). This is no problem, however, because the New Testament contains “all things that pertain to life and godliness” (2 Peter 1:3).

Everyone reading this article falls into one of two categories: (1) He is a saint already; or, (2) He may become a saint simply by obeying the gospel. Christ one day will take to heaven the sanctified church, as Paul explained: “Christ loved the church and gave himself up for her, that he might sanctify her, having cleansed her by the washing of water with the word, so that he might present the church to himself in splendor, without spot or wrinkle or any such thing, that she might be holy and without blemish” (Ephesians 5:25-27, emp. added). Are you on your way to heaven, as a sanctified member of the church that belongs to Christ?
Caleb

SUMMER CLASSES

As we begin our fall quarter, we would like to recognize the following men and women who served as teachers and assistants in the children's Bible classes during the summer quarter.

Mary Beth Carr, Caleb Colley, Josh & Rebekah Conley, Scott & Carla Drumm, Jody Harwell, Quayla Hope, Jim & Kathleen Ingerson, Cyndi Pigg, Cheryl Richards, and Shannon Rolen.

Thank you so much for sharing your time and talents with our children.

CONTACT GROUP

Contact Group 2 (Coordinator, Daniel Sequens) will meet for a few minutes in the Media Room immediately following the afternoon service. Please come and be a part of this important outreach.

ATTENTION: Please bring any completed contact cards you have to the meeting.

GATLINBURG/PIGEON FORGE RETREAT FEBRUARY, 2017

Friday, Saturday, and Sunday nights February 17, 18, 19, 2017 (leaving on Monday, Feb. 20) the Walden Lodge and Cabins have once again been reserved for the retreat to Gatlinburg/Pigeon Forge Tennessee. The cost per room is $180. The food must be paid for all who are 10 years old and older. For those under 10 there is no charge. The cost is $35.00 per person. You may still pay in 2 installments if you wish. The first money will be due from September 25 – October 9, 2016. The second payment will be due on Sunday, Dec. 11, 2016. Food cost will be due January 15, 2017.

We would like to try something new this year. Would you like to plan an evening meal? Perhaps you and a small committee could plan, purchase the food (you will be reimbursed or given money ahead), fix ahead as much as you can and transport to Gatlinburg. Some items you may prefer to purchase in Pigeon Forge. Breakfast and lunch will remain the same. This is a fun time for the whole family so please come join us for a great weekend of games, nature, shopping, and fellowship. If you have any questions please see Joyce or Elaine.

OPERATION CHRISTMAS JOY

We will bag the gifts on Sunday, September 25 (TODAY). We will also show appreciation for our deacons this month and will make them a small token of our thanks for all the work they do for us here at Macland Road! See you at 1:00! Don't forget to bring something to contribute!

Youth – plan on coming for the fun and helping organize and guide the littles in putting together the Panama bags. Sign up!
